Chesapeake & Ohio[®] Road Number 604

N
NORTH AMERICA

This 78' heavyweight paired-window coach car is blue with yellow and grey bands and runs on 6-wheel passenger trucks. In response to increasing war-time passenger travel, Chesapeake & Ohio purchased a small group of 1910s-era Pullman parlor cars in 1941 to be converted into coaches. This car was rebuilt with 84 seats and two restrooms, and was later painted into the C&O Tri-Color Scheme.

Fruit Industries Road Number CDLX 1076

N
NORTH AMERICA

This 39' single dome tank car is aluminum with red lettering and runs on Bettendorf trucks. During prohibition, wine grape growers in California were desperate to find alternative to wine production that allowed their vineyards to be profitable. Fruit Industries Limited was founded with a product called "Vine-Glo — Wine Haven Pure Grape Concentrate," a thick juice paste that could be fermented into wine in the consumer's own home. The company later produced jellies, syrups, and vinegars.
