Roma Wine Company Road Number GATX 4584

This 39' single dome tank car is aluminum with red lettering and runs on Bettendorf trucks. Roma Wine Company was founded in Lodi, California in the early 1900s. It soon became the largest winery in the industry with twelve production facilities spread across California. Roma was often seen as an industry leader and innovator, surviving prohibition by producing sacramental wine, and after the 1930s produced over 30 different varieties. Roma was sold to Schenley Industries in the early 1940s, and continued to market the Roma brand through the 1970s.

Pennsylvania Railroad Road Number PRR 88260

This 50' standard box car with double doors is freight car red with white lettering and runs on Bettendorf trucks. Built by the Samuel Rea Shops in 1962 for PRR, this X56 class boxcar was among the last of the type ordered, and had a cushioned underframe and Evans DF loaders. It remained on the roster into the 1980s before being retired.

#034 00 440...$26.90

Baltimore & Ohio* Road Number 294201

This 40' standard box car with double doors is oxide red with white lettering and runs on Bettendorf trucks. Built in 1947, this car advertised the B&O's Sentinel Service, a Less-than-Carload service that allowed express, siding-to-siding shipments. With a 100,000-pound capacity, this car also featured Sparton Easy Loaders (SEL) with 17 belts to facilitate car servicing.

New York Central 'April Fools' 2-pack

These 50' standard box cars with single door are black with brown sides and run on Bettendorf trucks. The paint crew was clearly distracted when they stenciled the reporting mark of this prototypically accurate car. And we ain't foolin' ya! The real-life cars actually displayed an incorrect "NCY" and "NYO" reporting marks for at least a decade. Built in 1955, this lot of 500 cars was designed with loading racks to facilitate loading and unloading.
